Glory Flour

ONLY
$1.25
PER SACK.

IT is the highest patent flour milled in the United States. Only one other town in the state handles such a high grade and costs us 10 cents per sack more than any other flour brought to Bryan. Glory flour for fancy cooking requires less lard, soda and baking powder than any other. If you are not in the habit of using this grade of flour try a sack and be convinced of its superiority.

WAR NEWS IS SCARCE

No Decisive Battle Reported from South Africa.

BRITISH HELD BACK.

They Have Succeeded in Taking Only Limited Territory and That Believed for No Good for the British Success.

London, Jan. 22.—Nothing has been received thus far which indicate any conclusive result has been reached by the British forces in the region of the upper Tugela, and the lack of information regarding what men and munitions the Boers have in reserve prevents an accurate determination of the measure of real success attending the two days hard fighting. All that can be said is that the British seem to be doggedly advancing in the face of an equally stubborn resistance.

At the close of Sunday's fighting the Boers had merely evacuated their first line of defense to take up another semicircle position a short distance in the rear, recalling the old burgher ruse by which the Boers previously managed to entice the British into fatal traps.

Dispatches from elsewhere in South Africa give trivial details of minor happenings and do not illuminate the situation.

The widow of General Wauchope, in an open letter hotly denies the stories that the general in any way criticized General Methuen. She says his last mention of General Methuen to her was contained in a letter from Orange river, dated Nov. 29, as follows: "Expect Gen. Methuen will halt at Modder river for some days before pushing forward. He has had a hard time of it, and must be a real gallant soul to shove along as he does."

Lord Wolsey has also issued a denial of the report that the war office is in possession of a letter from General Wauchope written the night before the battle at Magersfontein saying it would be the last letter he would write, as he had been asked to perform an impossible task and he had either to obey orders or surrender his sword.

London, Jan. 22.—The justifiable severity of the censorship at the present moment prevents the special correspondents from giving additional information to supplement General Buller's latest dispatch. The success of the movement depends almost entirely upon how far he proves able to outmaneuver the Boers, whose available forces are doubtless larger than his own. The chief difficulty lies in the ability of the Boers to transport men, stores and ammunition quickly and to entrench new positions. Secrecy regarding General Buller's progress, therefore, is essential and the public here is quite content to wait patiently.

From information which the censor has allowed to pass it is as yet impossible to form correct notion of the British tactics. One thing, however, is quite clear. The British commanders have profited by experience and are now avoiding infantry charges, giving preference to the more judicious use of artillery. The general idea is that Gen. Buller, with some 8000 men and 18 field guns, is holding the northern bank of the Tugela at Potgieters drift, while General Warren, with about 12,000 men, 80 guns and a large force of cavalry, is working around the right flank of the Boers eight or ten miles away.

One account of Saturday's fighting, it is said the British had few killed. Little reliance can be placed on these reports, and, although the main position of the Boers has not yet been attacked and nothing is known as to its strength, Saturday and Sunday's fighting, which can hardly be described as more than outpost affairs evidently entailed serious losses to the Boers, who are following their old time tactics—making a show of resistance and then retreating in good order to their prepared positions, and as they are working from the interior of their lines, they may be able to defend their positions.

Nothing is heard regarding any counter attack by General White from Ladysmith.

The news from other points is of slight interest. General Kelly-Kenny's division has been sent by General Gatacre to form an advanced base at R. seamed Junction.

HARD FIGHTING.

Hart and Clery Make Slight Advance After Ten Hours' Battle.

Spearman's Camp, Jan. 21.—After 10 hours of continuous and terrible fire yesterday, Generals Hart and Clery advanced 1000 yards. The Boers maintained an irregular fire during the night but the British outposts did not reply.

This morning at daybreak the Boers opened a still fire. Tag Britsh stood to the guns where they had slept and the engagement was renewed vigorously. The field artillery poured Sarapnel into the enemy's trenches.

A rumor that Ladysmith had been relieved enlivened the British, who sent up a ringing cheer. This was taken for an advance. The first kopje was carried at the point of the bayonet, and the Boers retreated to the next kopje, which, like most of the others, was strewn with immense boulders.

The British advanced steadily and the Boers relaxed slightly. The latter did not show such tenacity as previously. Their Nordenfeldts fired at long intervals, and their cannons fired but seldom. All day the roar of musketry fire continued. The British took three Boer positions on the mountain and found shelter behind the boulders.

SYMPATHY FOR BOERS.

A Meeting at Washington Causes a Packed House.

Washington Jan. 22.—The Grand opera-house, the largest auditorium in Washington, was packed to the doors Sunday night with an enthusiastic audience which vigorously expressed its sympathy with the Boers in their fight with Great Britain. The demonstration was planned as a means of evidencing public sentiment and in numbers and enthusiasm was fully up to the expectations. The keynote of the speeches was that the Boers were fighting for their independence, as our forefathers had done in 1776.

The gathering assembled under the auspices of the United Irish Societies and a number of leading Germans of the city joined in the movement. Among those who occupied seats on the stage were Senators Mason, Allen and Tillman; Representatives Clark DeArmond, Cochran, Bailey, Carmack, Cox, Rhea, Jones, Lamb, Shafroth, Meyer, Sulzer, and Lentz. Mr. Van Siclen, representative of the Orange Free State at New York, and representatives of the United Irish societies and others.

A large delegation of Irish-Americans and German-Americans from Baltimore was in the audience.

ON HIS OWN HOOK.

Webster Davis's No Longer Holds any Position with This Government.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Both the state and interior departments authorize a most sweeping denial of the story that Webster Davis, assistant secretary of the interior, is clothed with any diplomatic mission. It is declared he represents no department of the United States government in his visit to South Africa, but is there in a personal capacity. Since his arrival at Cape Town, where he went to visit his cousin, Consul General Stowe, the state department has been very much annoyed by the misconception that has been placed upon his visits. To prevent any further misunderstandings on that score the department positively declined Mr. Davis' application for a leave of absence for Mr. Stowe, who wished to accompany Mr. Davis to Pretoria.

If Mr. Davis' visit had not been purely personal, it is very probable he would have been also enjoined from proceeding to Pretoria, for it is anticipated misrepresentations as to the purpose may be drawn. It is even now possible that he will receive a reminder from the interior department that his course is embarrassing to the government.

The state department sent no instructions to Mr. Macrum respecting his attitude toward newspapers since his departure from Pretoria for the United States. In fact, it is said, the department has no authority whatever over Mr. Macrum, who has passed out of the government's view.

White at Washington.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Montague White, consul of the Transvaal at London, is in Washington as the accredited diplomatic representative of the South African republic. His presence in that capacity occasions much speculation, whether the state department will receive him in official capacity.

The weight of opinion among those conversant with diplomatic usages is that our government cannot recognize him as a diplomatic representative of the Transvaal.

Germany Again Exercised.

Berlin, Jan. 22.—The seizure of the German ship Marie, reported to be carrying war materials for the Transvaal, led to another outburst in the anti-English papers against the British high-handed action.

What Rochefort Says.

Paris, Jan. 22.—Henri Rochefort says the powers will stop England before she goes too far in Africa. If Portugal sells Delagoa bay there will be one king less in Europe.

The Marc Released.

Berlin, Jan. 22.—A dispatch from Durban say the German bark Marc, loaded with sulphur, which was captured by the British cruiser Fearless and taken to Port Elizabeth has been unconditionally released.

Only One Complaint.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Only one complaint has been registered at the state department that a filibustering expedition was organized in this country for the purpose of proceeding to South Africa. The complaint was filed 16 days ago by the British ambassador, who gave notification of the impending departure of a vessel from Philadelphia, laden with an armed expedition for the Boers interests. An investigation by the treasury disclose that the vessel was a sea going tug with about coal capacity to carry it from Philadelphia to the Delaware breakwater and back again.

The Drainage Canal Petition.

Washington, Jan. 22.—In the case of the State of Missouri vs. the State of Illinois, involving a petition by injunction against the Chicago drainage canal, the United States supreme court has decided to permit the attorney general of Missouri to file a bill making summons to the defendant returnable on April, 2.

THERE are some people who cannot be convinced that white is white and black is black because they are determined to have their own way about it. Very good—such people go through life missing the great truths and the greatest happiness as well as comfort. There are others again who are convinced. It is the people of this class that we like to talk to about the merits of our Groceries and the low prices we make. A call at our store will convince you that we can supply your needs and save you money on your grocery bill in 1900 if you will give us the opportunity.

Our hog men should be warned by the cowless cattlemen and not go out of the business because prices are not satisfactory just at present. Pork is the cheapest of all meats and the world's hungry multitudes must come to it, and all the sooner if beef continues to become dearer. Beef and pork are now about the same price per 100 pounds on the markets, and we see no serious cause of complaint, for 100 pounds of pork can be produced at less cost than the same amount of beef, and in one-fourth the time. Don't be a pigless hog man, unless unavoidable circumstances compel. Corn is still worth 50 cents a bushel made into pork, and the product is easily marketed.—Texas Farm and Ranch.

The times has been asked about the heliograph mode of signaling in vogue in South Africa during the present war there, so often spoken of in the dispatches and copies the following explanation from an exchange. "The instrument used in the sun signaling consists of a mirror mounted on a telescope in such a manner that by directing the telescope to a distant station a beam of sunlight may be thrown upon the station. These flashes are read according to the morse code or a cipher code, thus making possible the transmission of messages. The heliograph, as the instrument is called, is used in survey work in time of peace and transmitting military messages in time of war. Messages have been sent great distances by this means. The operation of the instrument depends upon the shining of the sun, and it cannot therefore be used in cloudy weather."

Every person should be taxed according to the property he owns, and every dollar's worth should be made to pay its proportion, if possible. If all property thus paid, the rate could be reduced one-half. Texas is now making an attempt to equalize taxes, and we find large and influential interests organized to defeat it, raising money and offering cash prizes for newspaper writers to oppose it. These special interests tell us it is not right to tax them because it all comes out the farmers and laborers at last; and they will have influential lobbyists armed with the "sinews of war" at Austin when the legislature meets to defeat the object for which it has been convened.—Farm and Ranch.

Broiled Frog Legs.

Frogs' legs must be broiled over a quick fire, quick enough to brown them crisply on the outside without charring the inside. While cooking, season lightly with a dressing of salt, pepper and melted butter, and just before serving squeeze a few drops of lemon juice on each morsel. Serve immediately with buttered toast.

FAVOR CANAL BILL.

Majority of the House and Senate Are in for Building the Canal.

New York, Jan. 22.—According to The Herald's Washington correspondent the Hepburn-Morgan Nicaraguan canal bill will be passed during the present session of congress. Speaker Henderson is in favor of the bill and of prompt action. Senator Frye, president pro tem of the senate, wants action by the senate and expresses the belief that the bill will be passed at an early date. The measure will receive the approval of the president.

There is an overwhelming majority in both houses of congress in favor of the pending bill and in favor of passing it without waiting for the report of the Walker commission.

The Herald's poll shows: In favor of action this session—Senators, 63; representatives, 254, total, 316.

In favor of delay—Senators, 1; representatives, 29; total, 30.

Noncommittal or not canvassed—Senators, 23; representatives, 67; total, 90.

Many men in the house classed as noncommittal are strongly inclined to favor the Hepburn bill, but are unwilling to commit themselves before they have seen the report of the committee. Some of those who are opposed to action at this time will, when confronted with the necessity of going on record, vote for the bill. It is safe to say that at least four-fifths of both houses will vote for the measure.

Senators who express so decided a preference one way or the other are largely administration men, who will be influenced in their votes by the desires of the president and the administration men.

FOR EXTENSION.

Committee Favor Giving Puerto Rico Advantage of State Laws.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Representative Payne's bill to extend the customs and internal revenue laws of the United States over the island of Puerto Rico will be considered by the house committee of ways and means during the present week. All the Republican members of the committee, and probably Representative Newlands, will vote to report the bill favorably. It is not certain, however, that the report will be made this week, as both the majority and the minority will probably wish to prepare statements on the constitutional question involved. The bill extending the revenue laws over Hawaii is also to be advanced as rapidly as possible. It is not intended by congress that any of the insular possessions of the United States, except Puerto Rico and Hawaii shall be brought into the revenue system of the United States. The present policy of the administration and of the leaders in congress is to have the Philippines permanently retain their own tariff against the United States and all other countries, giving all other nations the same trade advantage that are enjoyed by the United States in accordance with the "open-door" principle.

THE ROBERTS CASE.

It Will Come up This Week for Final Disposition.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The feature of the proceedings in the house this week will be the consideration of the case of Brigham H. Roberts, the Mormon representative elect from Utah. The case has attracted intense interest all over the country. Although the majority and minority of the committee which investigated the case agree that Mr. Roberts should not sit as a member of the house on account of the alleged polygamous practices, there will be a royal struggle over the question of procedure, upon which the committee has split. The case will be called up tomorrow, and two, possibly three, days will be devoted to it.

The senate again this week will devote itself almost exclusively to speech making. A variety of subjects will be covered. The financial bill will remain the unfinished business, but the senate will not be held strictly to its consideration, several set speeches will be made on it.

The Quay contest will be brought up in a day or so.

Report on Roberts' Case.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The majority and minority reports have been made on the Roberts case. The majority assert that the claimant ought not be allowed to take his seat in the house and that the seat should be declared vacant. The minority report is that he should be sworn in and then expelled if the two-thirds vote can be obtained against him.

BRYAN AT NEW YORK.

He Will Be Entertained by Mr. Belmont and Mr. Keller.

New York Jan. 22.—William J. Bryan arrived in Jersey City from Washington early this morning. He was met by James K. Oliver of the Democratic committee. Mr. Bryan remained in his private car until nearly 8 o'clock when he went to the Hoffman House.

At the hotel when Mr. Bryan arrived were State Senator P. H. McCarren, J. B. Stanchfield and Chairman Campbell of the state Democratic committee. These and others, making 35 in all, helped O. H. P. Belmont entertain Mr. Bryan at dinner at Mr. Belmont's home tonight.

Tomorrow evening Mr. Bryan will be the guest at dinner of President John W. Keller of the Democratic club. This dinner will be informal and be eaten in the diningroom of the club.

DON'T LIKE THE BOERS.

One Man from the Transvaal Gives Them a Poor Record.

New York, 22.—Fritz Mosenthal, for 35 years a resident of South Africa, a member of the Johannesburg relief committee of 58 which was concerned in the Jameson raid, all of whom when apprehended were compelled to pay fines of £20,000 each, and who is also a gold mine director, has arrived in this city from Germany. Mr. Mosenthal, although a German, has a rather poor opinion of the Boers and says they are cowards. Speaking of the Boers as a people he said:

"The Boer has no personal courage. He will fight when he is under cover but in the open, man to man, he is no match for any other white antagonist."

"The Boers do not, as a class, possess any education and do not wish to possess any. The moment a Boer becomes changed from the simple farmer to the city resident and his financial condition is enhanced thereby, he becomes a British subject and renounces the Boer traditions."

"Personally, I believe the war situation now centers in the district around Ladysmith, and I believe the British will gain a decisive victory soon, in which case the trouble will virtually be at an end."

Regarding the Delagoa bay situation Mr. Mosenthal said that in case of its being closed by England, which has the first claim on it by existing treaties with Portugal, there would be no inlet or outlet for the Boer munitions of war, the distance from points in the interior being entirely too great to admit of sending supplies of any kind from that direction.

Regarding the right of franchise denied to the British previous to the declaration of hostilities, Mr. Mosenthal said it was quite true that President Kruger had offered to the outlanders a franchise after five years, but always with the reservation that each case should be passed on by the older citizens of the commonwealth. Mr. Mosenthal said that while it was generally believed that "Oom Paul" was wealthy, there was no means of knowing just how rich he is. Mr. Mosenthal left South Africa in September, some time previous to the declaration of war.

ANOTHER MAN'S VIEWS.

He Says the British Will Falter When They Reach the Transvaal.

New York, Jan. 22.—"Even if they are driven back," said Samuel Stockton of Johannesburg, who is in this country waiting for a cessation of hostilities. "I do not believe that the Boers have as yet fought the great battle of the war, or even that this fight will occur in the mountain passes into their country. Not even Laings Nek is more impregnable than Johannesburg, or, rather, than, than Johannesburg can easily be made to be. I do not know that it would be strictly correct to say that Johannesburg is naturally defended and yet her impregnable condition is not due to any effort or intent to make her so, but has come accidentally and as an incident to the mining that has been carried on there."

The rand belt of mines stretches for a full 30 miles between Johannesburg and the invading force at intervals of a quarter and a half mile apart. At each mine are tailing heaps—that is, the mounds of ground up rock and debris from which the gold has been extracted. These tailings, which are of immense height and breadth and much resemble in size and contour the waste heaps outside of the anthracite coal mines in Pennsylvania, are each and all practically impregnable natural forts, while the short distance they lie apart, with cannon mounted on them, would make it absolutely impossible for the British to penetrate them.

On the other hand they cannot be battered down, and to attack them with artillery would be simply to waste ammunition for the shells would be lost. Let them explode in any part of the mound, the shifting slag would immediately fill up the hollow thus made and the pile would be as before. Absolutely no advantage would accrue to the attacking party.

Just to give you an idea of how great a quantity of these tailings there must be, take the following calculation: There are within 10 miles 5000 stamps, in the Transvaal, which have been running steadily for five years. They, or a large part of them, have really been running longer, but for the sake of argument we will put it at five years. That means there are sufficient tailings adjacent to Johannesburg to construct a fortification 20 feet wide by 20 feet in height from that point continuously to Cape Town and even further."

Denies He Lost Speculating.

New York, Jan. 22.—Count Boni de Castellane and Countess de Castellane, nee Miss Gould, arrived here on the French liner La Bretagne from Havre, France. They went to the Waldorf-Astoria hotel. The count was willing to talk about the stories of his losses by stock speculation. He denies having lost any money speculating, and even went so far as to say he never gambled in his life. He has sent a message demanding a retraction of the story by the newspaper making the statement.

Crawford Wins.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 22.—In the legislature the house contesting committee reported in favor of A. P. Crawford, Democrat of Breathitt county, against Edward Markham, Republican. The report was adopted without a dissenting vote.

"FAIRY TALES."

SOME FOLK'S pretences to always undersell the world are rather tiresome. No one has monopoly of Brains and money. It will be a very sorry day for this little town when competition ceases. The fanciful stories of some remind us much of our childhood days when we sat on Mothers knee listening to Mother Goose stories. But maturer years require more reason. You want something more substantial than Fairy tales. That is why our constant attempt is to make the prices on our goods a point to meet the approval of the sensible purchasing public.

Such as Fame.

Ex-President Harrison, who is in Paris in attendance on the sittings of the Venezuelan commission, evidently has not attracted the attention of the postal authorities, as a letter from Indianapolis addressed "General Benjamin Harrison, Paris, France," was returned to the writer with the indorsement, "Unknown here."

A Woman Hater.

Cecil Rhodes, the speculator and promoter of South American schemes, has another quality besides his unscrupulousness that will fail to command him to many people. He is asserted to be so confirmed in his misogyny that he employs none but men, even around his house as house servants.

TRIBUTE TO WHEELER.

What an Indiana Volunteer Writes Home About Him.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 22.—B F. Whalley, an Indiana volunteer, writes from Paniqui, Philippine Islands, making the following reference to General Joseph Wheeler:

"How could a single man in our ranks, be he a veteran or 'rookie' make even a wry face at the trials of war when the inspiring sight of that venerable 'cotton-headed' southern warhorse and hero of El Caney and San Juan, General Joseph Wheeler, is at the front of our column, leading the way through swamps, across rivers and into the dense jungles of this island and now and then dismounting from his horse and bidding some exhausted soldier to get into the saddle, while he, taking the gun of the private and slinging it over his shoulders, marched along with us, chatting with the men about him in a gleeful, familiar way, causing them to forget every sensation of hunger and fatigue and to remember only they were the defenders of the flag.

"When we left Angeles in October General Wheeler gave imperative command that no soldier should start upon this march burdened with an ounce of unnecessary incumbrance. Consequently we are at present the raggedest, dirtiest, nakedest and most dilapidated and weatherbeaten set of lads upon which the sun shines or rains of Luzon ever descended.

"Since starting on this southern campaign we have been completely cut off from the rest of the world. We have met with but little resistance and no loss of lives. In fact, the natives seem more inclined to welcome us as benefactors."

Wheeler Sails Wednesday.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The war department has received a cablegram from General Otis stating that General Wheeler will sail from Manila on Wednesday on the transport Warren for the United States by way of Guam and Honolulu.

FORT SCOTT LYNCHING.

Thousands View the Remains of the Two Dead Brothers.

Fort Scott, Kas., Jan. 22.—Thousands of people Sunday viewed the remains of Ed and George Meeks the murderers, who were lynched in the jail yard here Saturday night. The bodies still lie at the morgue, the hands and legs shackled as they were when the men were taken from their cells by the mob.

George Meeks' wife has wired from Pueblo that she is coming to claim the body of her husband, and Ed Meeks' widow wired from Kansas City that the remains of both men would be taken to that city for interment.

The people have quieted down and it is not believed that there will be any further attempt to lynch Amos Phillips for whom the mob searched in vain on Saturday night.

TOO MUCH HYPOCRISY.

A Minister Gives Sensational Reasons for His Retirement.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 22.—Rev. James MacInnis, pastor of the Oak Leaf Congregational chapel, announced his retirement from the ministry Sunday. Said he:

"I believe in dancing and a long list of other things that are tabooed by churchgoers when indulged in by ministers. If a man needs a drink he has a right to take it. When I meet a man on the street I like to slap him on the back and say: 'Hello there, Bill' in a good hearty voice. I believe in God and Christianity, but the church is burdened with false ideas and full of sinful hypocrites, and some of my friends who might be called 'lushers' are infinitely better than these frauds of piety.

"The ministry is no place for a young man who wants his personal liberty. He must use too much hypocrisy and overlook too much hypocrisy in others."

BRUSH WITH FILIPINOS.

Major Johnson Drives Them Ahead of Him With Some Loss.

Manila, Jan. 22.—Major Johnson, commanding a battalion of the Fortieth infantry, Wheaton's brigade, reports from Lemery that he drove the enemy through Balayang eastward on Jan. 18, capturing 17 rifles and one field piece. A few hours later, through Calaca, he captured four prisoners, four horses and equipment of six rifles, killed three insurgents and advanced to Lemery where he captured the enemy's outposts of three men and six horses. The enemy were dispersed, retreating in many directions.

The enemy is reported in large numbers and heavily entrenched at and near Santa Cruz, Laguna de Bay. Schwan is swinging his troops on that point, his left at the town of Bay, a few miles east of Calamba, his right, consisting of cavalry, at the city of Tayabas.

George Eyre Was Murdered.

Bridgeton, N. J., Jan. 22.—The body of George B. Eyre, the rich young man of Chester, Pa., who went on a shooting expedition in a skiff on the Delaware river on Dec. 21 and never returned, was found floating in the river. He had been murdered and robbed and then tied to a stone at the bottom of the river.

Texas Cattlemen.

San Antonio, Jan. 22.—The ninth annual convention of the Texas Live Stock association began a three days' session here today. The town is full of cattle-men.

THE BEST RESOLUTION

To make for 1900, is to resolve to manage your expenses so that at the end of the year you will have a balance to your credit greater than the year before, and at the same time not deny your family all the little luxuries which are now regarded as necessities. Buy your Groceries right—there's the secret of economic and comfortable living, and we honestly believe you will never regret placing your business with us.

We are at all times headquarters for products of the farm, and a telephone order to us will bring the desired articles if they are to be had. We do an enormous out-of-town business, and are always in close touch with the producers. Respectfully,

FIGHT WITH YAQUIS.

Eighty Mexicans Killed and Five Hundred Indians Taken Prisoners.

Nogales, A. T., Jan. 22.—A message from Ortiz, state of Sonora, reports that carriers from Macoyate confirm the account of the last stand of the Yaqui Indians against the Mexican general Lorenzo Torres. Official telegrams received in Nogales place the Mexican loss in killed and wounded at 80, and a message sent over the government wires confirm the report of the killing of the Yaqui chief Tetabiate, along with 200 of his best fighters.

The 500 Indians taken prisoners will be brought to Ortiz, and also Father Beltram and the Josephine sisters who were rescued.

Governor Torral at Hermosillo has wired all points in Sonora to be on their guard and look out for small bands of Indians.

A FATAL ROW.

Three Italians Killed in a Tenement House Fight at New York.

New York, Jan. 22.—Three Italians of one home were shot to death in an inter-family row which began in an Italian tenement house on East Eleventh street at noon yesterday and ended in one of the worst Sunday brawls the East Side has seen for some time.

Antonio Colletti, aged 37, married, was shot through the lungs and died in his tracks.

Casper Colletti, 19 years old, his brother, was shot in the breast and died shortly after being taken to the Bellevue hospital.

David Salvatore, 40 years old, a cousin of the Collettis, was shot in the stomach and died in the hospital.

Vincenzo Spinella and his son Frank, 17 years of age, have been arrested and charged with murder, and the police are still searching for Frank Spinella, a brother of Vincenzo, who also played a part in the tragedy.

THE BREMOND TRAGEDY.

M. H. Stelbauer Was Killed and M. P. Lang Was Seriously Wounded.

Bremont, Tex., Jan. 22.—In a midnight difficulty at the Cottage hotel on Sunday morning, between M. H. Stelbauer, justice of the peace of Bremont, and M. P. Lang, a druggist, which arose over an account, Stelbauer was killed.

Stelbauer received three shots, two in his breast and one in his jaw, breaking his neck. He walked out of the office of the hotel, sat down on a bench on the porch and was dead.

Lang received a lick on the head with a pistol, a dangerous wound, and one shot in the side, the ball being extracted near the spinal column, and though seriously wounded, may pull through.

Saved from Would-be Lynchers.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 22.—The negro who shot Deputy Sheriff Carter of Autauga county was not lynched, as has been presumed. An officer started with him from Kingston to Prattville, about a dozen miles east, last Wednesday. A mob followed them. Nothing was heard of the deputy or his prisoner until Saturday night, when they showed up in Selma. The report that on the way to Prattville, the mob came close upon them and opened fire. They fled for miles, and until they came upon a railroad track, which they followed until a passing train took them aboard.

Rangers Sent to Bastrop.

Austin, Jan. 22.—An additional company of rangers has been ordered to Bastrop to remain there during the trial of the men charged with the murder of Arthur Burford, the son of Sheriff Burford of Colorado county, who was killed a few days ago by members of the Reece faction. The trial is set for next Wednesday and subpoenas have been issued for 1240 witnesses. The rangers will disarm every man as he enters the town.

Goebel-Taylor Contest.

Frankfort, Jan. 22.—Attorneys for both sides were busy all Sunday preparing evidence to be submitted during the week. While no agreement has been reached regarding the time to be allowed for the further introduction of evidence, it is generally believed that it will require all of this week for the examination of witnesses and that arguments will not be made until next week.

Verdict for Damages.

Waco, Jan. 22.—In Judge Surratt's court George Washington, colored, recovered a verdict of $1700 damages against the Citizen's Electric Street Railway company for the death of his son, Harry Washington, a minor, who was killed in a collision which wrecked a wagon in which the father and son were driving.

Will Meet at Milwaukee.

Pittsburg, Jan. 22.—The annual meeting of the League of American Wheelmen for 1900 will be held in Milwaukee. This has just been decided by the executive committee. The date of the meeting will be fixed later.

Texas Legislature.

Austin, Jan. 22.—The extraordinary session of the Twenty-sixth legislature convenes tomorrow and members are arriving on every train, though the majority of them will not reach here before tomorrow.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Troy, N. Y., has streetcar strike on hand. Streetcar employees demand 20 cents an hour and 10 hours a day.

C. G. Morledge was arrested at Kansas City, Mo., after holding up a bar-keeper. He also confessed to robbing the two restaurants last week.
